

Summary of the Job:

The registered nurse provides direct nursing care to patients in both isolation and quarantine COVID-19 settings as per national/international guidelines and requirements by Medair Management.

Main tasks and duties:

- Performing the special tasks of an isolation/quarantine care nurse:
 - Commitment to standards of care and professional practice.
 - Demonstrate clinical assessment and treatment skills for patient's as per national and international guidelines. clinical indication and instructions for on-call doctor or Medair management during 12 hour shifts (day or night as per roster)
 - Communicate with MOPH to arrange testing for patients in quarantine developing symptoms
 - Communicating with the on-call doctor regarding patients who are clinically deteriorating
 - Communicating with Lebanese Red Cross and local referral hospital to arrange transfer of patients who are clinically deteriorating
 - Practicing first aid services such as Basic Life Support if needed including, ECG and use of automatic defibrillator.
 - Providing health education including COVID-19 awareness and infection prevention control to individuals and their communities including prior to discharge
 - Monitoring the availability of supplies and equipment for the centre and communicating with site manager regarding the same or any other issues.
 - Recording the required patient data through patient admission, stay and discharge
- Respecting and adhering to guidelines related to COVID-19 specific and general occupational safety in order to protect themselves, patients and co-workers including: Use of Personal Prevention Equipment, decontamination procedures, waste management, public safety measures, infection control and procedures, fire prevention and control and implement mandatory training on it before starting work and periodically.
- Adherence to the centre's internal systems, established work policies and procedures and ongoing professional development and monitoring.
- Treating all patients and staff with respect and maintaining safety and professional ethics.
- To work with the nursing team and site manager to cover colleague absence for the first 48 hours.
- Attending trainings organized by WHO, MOPH, RI, or any other external organization
- Performing other duties as required by the medical team or Medair management

Qualifications and experience required:

- Between the age of 20 and 45
- In good health and not complaining of any chronic disease that makes susceptible to infection (must provide a medical certificate from a general practitioner)
- Bachelor degree in Nursing sciences (LT Nursing, BS Nursing), and he / she must have:
 - Permission to practice nursing profession from the Ministry of Public Health in Lebanon.
 - Registration with the Order of Nurses.
 - Up to date Basic Life Support Certificate
 - Good experience in nursing business for at least 3 years.
 - Computer skills (especially in using the electronic medical file), electronic printer, fax, etc.
 - Languages: Arabic (Fluent), English (Good)