About Soulmed

Soulmed aims to transform the medical healthcare landscape through the implementation of the latest technologies in Telemedicine. Our core activities are mainly Remote Patient Monitoring, Innovative Medical Devices, and Telehealth Solutions in general.

We strongly believe that maintaining a high quality of life starts by using the right tools at your disposal, to ensure proper follow-up of your health and optimal care of your wellbeing.

Our teams of experts, having many years of experience in healthcare, telecommunication, and software development; have joined their efforts to achieve our mission of empowering people around the world to have access to quality care in the most reliable, affordable, and secured way, anytime, anywhere.

Job Title

Nurse Application Specialist

Job Description

The Nurse Application Specialist is responsible for the successful implementation, ongoing maintenance, support and enhancement of organization's clinical applications, with a focus on those systems used by healthcare providers and direct patient care givers

Requirements and skills

- Gender: Female
- Bachelor degree in nursing.
- Member at the Order of Nurses
- Valid nursing license.
- 5 years of experience as a registered nurse is a must.
- Presentation Skills.
- Expand knowledge and capabilities by attending educational workshops, conferences etc.
- Organized and meticulous about details.
- In-depth knowledge of health and safety guidelines and procedures (sanitation, decontamination etc.) and willingness to follow them at all times.
- Good knowledge in ECG / EKG.
- Ability to transfer knowledge.
- Outstanding organizational and multi-tasking skills.
- Responsible and compassionate
- A team player with excellent communication and interpersonal skills.
- Fluent in English.
- Good verbal and written communication skills
- Flexible Time
- Mobile (car and valid driving license)

Please send your CV's to firas.alayoubi@soulmedhc.com or Contact the following number for more information +961 76 014 166